

The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is pleased to announce the release of the final rule regarding the Affordable Care Act (ACA). This rule, effective January 1, 2014, will implement the provisions of the ACA that require the creation of a new health insurance exchange. The rule provides guidance on the requirements for the exchange, including the process for selecting a qualified health plan (QHP) issuer and the process for enrolling individuals.

The rule also addresses the requirements for the exchange to be accessible to individuals with disabilities and to provide language assistance to individuals who are limited English proficient (LEP). The rule requires the exchange to be accessible to individuals with disabilities in a manner consistent with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The rule also requires the exchange to provide language assistance to individuals who are LEP in a manner consistent with the Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
